

Post High School Program

Business and Technical Training Academy Serving Deaf and Hard of Hearing

Next Session runs February 2008-April 2008

Through the partnership of the Washington School for the Deaf and ESD 112 we are able to offer a unique opportunity for specialized training in business technology for Deaf and Hard of Hearing individuals. If you are a resident of Washington, graduated from high school and are between the ages of 18 – 21 you may qualify. Programs run approximately 3 – 4 months depending on individual programs.

Business and Technical Training Academy

In order to succeed in today's busy world of business, you must demonstrate strong office and technical skills and exhibit a professional attitude and appearance. This Academy will help you build skills that can be used for a variety of jobs including human resources, office assistant, medical office, purchasing, secretarial, and hundreds of others.

Through the Business and Technical Training Academy, you will gain skills necessary to attain the Microsoft Office Users Certification. You'll learn Power Point, Excel, and other computer applications. Through a real on the job placement, you'll gain valuable contacts and experience to enhance your references and resume. You will also receive training in teamwork and leadership skills; get coaching on worksite behavior and interaction with co-workers and employers. If business is in your future, this is a great place to start!

Washington School for the Deaf Post High School Program

The Washington School for the Deaf Post High School program gives the option of being a residential student here on campus as you attend the Business and Technical Training Academy. The cost is a minimal $80.00 to start up which $55.00 may be returned at the end of the program. When you enroll into the Post High School program you will receive the following benefits:
