Category A: Groups that meet the core mission of WSD (which is to serve deaf or hard of hearing individuals or individuals in the educational field) will fall under this category. This includes parents or other authorized persons, other campus groups, clubs and organizations conducting school related business. No facilities rental charge will be incurred, however a charge for utilities and services will apply per the fee schedule.

Category B: Non-revenue producing community organizations, clubs or groups and any private or commercial enterprises. This includes churches, church-related groups, private social clubs, fund-raising groups and organizations using facilities for self or corporate income. Examples: dance school performances, benefit banquets. All groups in this category will be charged the full fee listed in the fee schedule in addition to utilities, custodial and security charges (for time when security is not normally scheduled) per the fee schedules. A copy of the 501.c.3 must be provided with the signed contract for proof of eligibility.

Category C: Revenue producing community organizations/groups that generate revenue beyond the user rental fees will be subject to the full fee listed in addition to utilities, custodial and security charges (for when security is not normally scheduled) per the fee schedule. Examples: benefit performances, use of facilities for self or corporate unions.
